

Your best practice evolving!

Putties

A complete putty range (from universal to traditional, from light putties to putties containing fibreglass) to ensure the safest and easiest application in all situations.

Caring about the differences!

P9046-12/2019

A polyvalent and light product
05 331 MULTILIGHT

A universal light putty of a new generation. Easy application and use are TOP characteristics of the product.

- Very good application with spatula.
- Easy sanding.
- High filling power.
- Easy use.
- Very good adhesion on galvanized steel sheet.

Safety in use
04 380 POLYDUR ZINC

A universal putty which guarantees safe usage in different application conditions. The most used product in a professional car body shop.

- Very good adhesion, also on galvanized steel sheet.
- Very good application with spatula.
- Very good sanding.
- Very high filling power.
- Drying possible also with short-wave I.R. lamps.

High performance standard product
04 461 POLYDUR CART

Standard putty with high performance; it can be used both for sheet repairs and for fibreglass. It is a traditional product for car refinishing.

- Very good sanding.
- Very easy application with spatula.
- Very high filling power.
- Safety in use.

The best quality / price ratio
04 462 POLYDUR FAST

The ideal putty for an excellent quality / price ratio.

- Easy application.
- Very high filling power.
- Very rapid hardening.

High tenacity
05 537 POLYDUR SPAT-O-FIBER FINE

It is recommended when a product with high tenacity and high filling power with the reinforcement of selected fibreglass particles is required.

- Suitable for reconstruction work.
- Very rapid hardening.
- Very high adherence.
- Possibility of filling holes several millimetres deep.
- Very good adhesion on steel and fibreglass.

The specialist
04 465 POLYDUR PLASTIC

Ideal for car plastics repair. In a practical kit with spatula and hardener.

- Excellent flexibility and very easy application.
- Very good adhesion on car plastics and fibreglass.
- Colour: dark grey.
- Easy sanding, also with fine abrasive papers.

* All the above-mentioned products comply with directive 2004/42/CE.

www.lechler.eu

Caring about the differences!